

Dr. Vinay Pratap Singh
Head – Placement
Corporate Affairs Development Center

Dr. Vinay Pratap Singh is a key member of CADC, he is having More than 14 years of rich experience in Training & Placement, counselling, Corporate Relation and Academics.

With a vision to take the training and placement of an Institute to the heights which could make it distinguished in the academic arena and to assist in building ethical and professional young minds to lead the future of the industry and the country , he is a multi dimensional professional.

He has very good corporate relations which makes him an asset for any organization who wants to build a strong corporate networking and to get ample opportunities for the students to get placed in best of the companies.

He is credited to arranged a number of Seminars, Guest lectures, industry visits with best of the companies which opens new paradigm of learning and exposure for the students.

Academically he is having Doctorate degree in Management and He has also specialized in conducting various Psychometric analysis for the students which is extremely helpful for the students to explore their true interest and to work accordingly to lead a successful and satisfying life.

His performance statistics with various organizations speaks volume about his dedication towards work and performance orientation. A true professional and at the same time he is a person of calm and sweet temperament and also a team leader.